

Commitment to the Community

A partial list of programs made possible by your tax deductible donations:

Weekly visual arts, performance, creative writing classes for youth and seniors

Our Open Studio enables our students to display their works and discuss their creative process

Museum and gallery visits to view and discuss works and meet with artists

All our programs are free.

We believe that the arts should benefit all people within the community!

Supporting ARTS! By the People

ARTS! By the People is a 501c3 not for profit organization.

Your contributions will be 100% tax deductible. All donors will receive a receipt for their tax records.

We also offer various levels of business advertising and corporate sponsorships.

Donors and corporate sponsors will be recognized for their support by having their name or name of their company posted on our studio "Wall of Fame".

Please visit our website for more information on upcoming classes and events: www.artsbythepeople.com
